What personal data do we process? And for what purposes?

When we receive data from you, as a general rule we will only process it for the purposes for which it was received or collected.

Data processing for other purposes is only considered when the necessary legal conditions pursuant to Art. 6 (4) GDPR are met. In such cases, we will naturally fulfil any notification obligations incumbent upon us pursuant to Art. 13 (3) GDPR and Art. 14 (4) GDPR.

What is the underlying legal basis for this?

The legal basis for processing personal data as a general rule, and when no specific legal provisions are cited, is Art. 6 GDPR. In this regard, the following capabilities come into consideration in particular:

- consent (Art. 6 (1) letter a GDPR).
- data processing for the performance of a contract (Art. 6 (1) letter b GDPR).
- data processing following a weighing up of the respective parties' interests (Art. 6 (1) letter f GDPR).
- data processing to fulfil a legal obligation (Art. 6 (1) letter c GDPR).

When personal data is processed on the basis of your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time effective in regard to all future processing.

When we process data on the basis of a weighing up of interests, as the data subject you have the right, subject to the provisions in Art. 21 GDPR, to object to the processing of your personal data.

The Vereinigte Domstifter zu Merseburg und Naumburg und des Kollegiatstifts Zeitz are obliged according to the 5th regulation for the containment of SARS-CoV-2 in accordance with § 4(5) to capture the individual visitors to Naumburg Cathedral.

How long do we store the data?

In order to be able to follow the chains of infection, your data is stored for four weeks.

To which recipients is the data forwarded?

Your personal data will only be passed on to third parties if we are requested to do so by the Burgenland District Health Authority, the forwarding of such data is permitted on the basis of a weighing up of interests in the sense of Art. 6 (1) letter f GDPR, we have a legal obligation to forward such data or you have granted your consent to the same.

Where is the data processed?

Your personal data will only be processed by us in the Federal Republic of Germany.

Your rights as “data subject”

You have the right to be informed of the personal data relating to you that we process. When requesting information in verbal rather than in written form we would ask that you provide proof of identity to establish you are the person you claim to be. In addition, you have the right to the rectification or erasure of your data or to the restriction of its processing, where provided by law. Furthermore, you also have a right to object to the processing of your data in accordance with the legal provisions. You also have a right to data portability within the scope provided by data protection provisions.

In particular, you have a right to object pursuant to Art. 21 (1) and (2) GDPR to the processing of your data in connection with direct marketing, if this is carried out on the basis of a weighing up of interests.

We do not perform any processing in relation to an automated decision-making process, including profiling in the sense of Art. 22 GDPR.
